Introducing the “Meam Loez Kollelim”

Summary of the Webinar Event

The Gemara (Sota 21a) tells of the story of the great Tana Hillel, who started out as a pauper. He did not even have the 50 cents to get into the bet Hakneset to learn. Instead, he lay on the roof to overhear the Torah learning. His brother, Shevna was very wealthy, but had no interest in helping Hillel, his brother. Eventually, when Hillel became the Nassi & Gadol Hador, his brother Shevna wanted to help support his famous brother, but the Gemara relates that his offer was not accepted. A Bat Kol, heavenly voice, came out and told him “Too late! Where were you when Rabbi Hillel was so desperately struggling? Shame on you!”

Why could he not retroactively support his brother? And more so, why could he not support him going forward?

Rabbi Eli Mansour brought Rav Hai Gaon’s explanation, Torah learning is a great mitzva and it cannot be bought with money. The only way to be a part of the zechut of Torah is by joining it in real time. Those who have the merit of supporting Torah are considered as if they themselves are learning and have the full reward just like the learners themselves! Like the partnership of Yissachar and Zevulun who show us the way the Torah wants us to work together in order for every member of Klal Yisrael to be part of the ultimate goal of connection to Hashem through Torah learning.

To answer our second question, Shevna came forward in support of his great brother Hillel only once he became great. This shows his total lack of appreciation for Torah. Instead, we see his pride and thirst for personal kavod. Also, once a Torah giant is revealed, he no longer needs support as he is famous and has many people coming forward.

The Gemara shows us an opposite example. Shimon is known as Shimon the brother of Azaria. This seems strange as usually the Gemara relates to people by the name of their father like Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai. Here Shimon is referred to as the brother of Azaria, since Azaria was the supporter of Shimon the Tana, even before he became famous, which enabled Shimon to learn without mundane concern and worries. They were as one in the Torah learning, therefore their names are forever linked!

The great Rosh Yeshiva, Rav Chaim founder of Volozin Yeshiva, one of the supporters of the yeshiva who had just passed away, came to him on his dream, and solved a difficulty he had in the learning. In the morning, he told his students: “I always knew that in Shamaim the supporters gain the understanding of all the Torah, but I never knew that they would know so much more than us in such a short time”.

Let’s be an Azaria! Let’s join the great merit of our own Avrechim, Talimdei Chachamim, here at Meam Loez! Our daily Kollelim offer an ideal framework, with a fantastic atmosphere, while also providing the whole community with chavrutot at all levels, any time of the day.

Membership helps maintain our shul. This is a separate fund dedicated to the Kollelim, in order to elevate Torah in Meam Loez and increase learning. Grab this zechut in these days of Kabbalat HaTorah during the Chag of Shavuot. You can be the supporter of the upcoming Leaders of Klal Yisrael! This is an opportunity for investing in eternity!
